STANDARD MAINTENANCE, LLC., RECOGNIZED FOR THEIR OUTSTANDING SAFETY AND HEALTH PROGRAM

NASHVILLE – Tennessee Department of Labor & Workforce Development Commissioner Michael E. Magill recently announced that Standard Maintenance, LLC, in Memphis was awarded the Governor’s Award of Excellence for Workplace Safety and Health.

Standard Maintenance was presented the award by Magill at the 24th annual Tennessee Safety and Health Congress held at the Opryland Hotel in Nashville in July.

“Standard Maintenance has proven their commitment to maintaining a safe and healthy workplace,” said Magill. “Achieving the Governor’s Award is a huge accomplishment because the evaluation criteria for the award are extremely challenging, but Standard Maintenance has worked hard to meet and exceed those required standards.”

The Governor’s Award of Excellence for Workplace Safety and Health is given to Tennessee employers who meet the required number of hours during a calendar year without workplace injuries serious enough to cause an employee to miss a day of work or restrict his normal job activities. The number of hours required is based on the size of the company.

Standard Maintenance has had no lost-time work injuries since January 2000. The TOSHA Division of the Tennessee Department of Labor & Workforce Development has provided consultative services to the employer to insure their compliance with safety and health responsibilities.

Standard Maintenance, which is a sister company to Jameson Gibson Construction in Memphis, provides millwright and pipe fitting services to industrial customers. Owned by Chris Jameson and George Hampton, the company has 29 employees. Standard Maintenance's sister company, Jameson Gibson Construction, also received the Governor's Award.
